The REGISTER is issued twice each week (Wednesday and Saturday mornings) at the low price of three dollars per year, in advance. Call at the office, corner of First and Ferry streets, and subscribe.

SERENADERS.—"Howard's Serenaders" gave an exhibition on Thursday night, and another last night, at the Pacific Opera House. A fair house attended the first exhibition—we are not apprised of the attendance last evening. The exhibition was really good, well worth the price of admission. There was lots of fun for 50c, and a good deal more talent than is usually found in entertainments of this character. The Serenaders are deserving of a liberal patronage.

MEDICAL.—As will be seen by card elsewhere, Dr. Harris has associated with him in the practice of his profession, Dr. H. J. Boughton, late of Roseburg. In the course of a long practice, Dr. Boughton has gained an enviable reputation as a physician and gentleman, and we therefore confidently recommend the new firm to those needing medical attention.

CORRECTION.—A communication in yesterday's Democrat from J. H. Hackleman, County Clerk, states that the copy of the assessment roll of the county, presented to the State Board of Equalization, did not show that any deduction had been made by the County Board from the assessment of the O. & C. Railroad Co.

FOR THE YAKIMA COUNTRY.—Messrs. Wm. Morgan and Wm. Miller started overland on Friday for Portland, thence by steamer and land to the Yakima country. The latest advices from that country are very favorable, and we wish the boys may strike it rich, and return to us again millionaires.

CONVENTIONS.—The Republican Convention for the nomination of candidates for city offices will be called to meet at the Court House on the 20th inst. The Democratic Convention, we understand, will be called to meet at same place on the 28th. The candidates for the different positions will probably muster all their friends on the occasion.

THE SINGER.—Still seems to stand highest in popular esteem. If we may judge from the number sold. It is certainly a splendid machine—a real labor-saver to woman. Messrs. Titus, Bourgarde & Co., are agents for the Singer in this city, where also can be obtained all kinds of machine needles. Call and see.

THANKSGIVING DINNER.—The lady members of the U. P. Church of this city, propose giving a grand Thanksgiving Dinner on the 27th inst., at the Pacific Opera House, for the benefit of the church, and all who delight in partaking of a good dinner—and who doesn't?—will have the privilege on said occasion. A sociable in the evening will conclude the day's enjoyment. If the Opera House is not jam full on Thanksgiving day, we're no judge of what will catch the people.

BACK AGAIN.—Mart. Payne and wife returned, a few days since, from a trip to the upper country, extending as far up as the Boise country, we believe. He reports money scarce and times hard in that region.

FOR THE MINES.—As the news from the Yakima gold diggings still continues fair, several parties are getting ready to scout in that direction. Somebody will make a strike in that country, and why not one of our folks?

ST. NICHOLAS.—Is the title of a new magazine for girls and boys, published by Scribner & Co., New York, under the editorial charge of Mary Mapes Dodge, one of the most brilliant writers of America. It is neatly printed, beautifully illustrated, and comes nearer being perfect in every particular than any similar magazine we have yet seen. In the November number there are thirty-three articles, some for the very little ones, some for the oldest of young people, and some for every age between. In its broad, well filled pages we find poems by William Cullen Bryant, Celia Thaxter, Lucy Larcom and others. Articles are contributed by such eminent writers as Rebecca Harding Davis, Donald G. Mitchell, Frank R. Stockton, Anne Moore, Margaret Eyttinge, Paul Fort, J. S. Stacy, Lucretia P. Hale, Noah Brooks and Olive Thorne. There is also a short story in German, an admirable feature—especially for the benefit of those learning that language. A story in French is announced for the next number. The many and varied attractions offered by St. Nicholas will undoubtedly make it the most popular magazine of the day, and secure for it an immense circulation. Published by Scribner & Co., 654 Broadway, New York, at $3 per annum. The REGISTER, and St. Nicholas, one year, for $5 25 coin.

INCEST.—A most revolting case of incest is the subject of speculation in this city at the present time. It appears that a young woman who was about three months ago married to a worthy citizen of this place, last Sabbath gave birth to a female child, and upon being charged with infidelity by her betrayed husband, she confessed that the child was the fruit of illicit intercourse with a blood relation. The distracted and outraged husband immediately took his three children (by a former marriage) and left the unhappy woman whom he so fondly loved and trusted but a few days ago. We understand he has placed the children in the custody of his relatives and gone to California, there to forget in mutations of time the disgrace and humiliation which has overtaken him by no fault of his own. This is indeed a sad case, as all parties connected with the affair have heretofore borne most exemplary reputations in our community. We trust the guilty betrayer of this unhappy woman may be brought to justice and severe punishment. —Democrat.

MORE CRIME.—On Thursday, Mr. Wm. Poe, of Halsey precinct, was arrested on a warrant issued by J. S. Grimes, J. P., charged with the crime of incest. Poe was brought before E. N. Taub, County Judge, yesterday, when he waived examination and was committed to answer, and in default of bail, $3,000, was incarcerated in the county jail. The crime is charged to have been committed with the daughter of Poe, aged about eighteen, who, about three weeks since, gave birth to a child. We shall refrain from commenting on this case until both sides have had a fair hearing, only premising that Poe is the father of a large family of children, and has heretofore stood well in community.

NOT SO HEROIC AS WE THOUGHT.—We learn that Capt. Humphrey was not so heroic as he might have been. Instead of going around enquiring for the small lady with the large child, he started to the Opera House and went to bed. His brother-in-law, Daly, was the ringleader that carried out the fat man, the first letter of whose name was Kelsay. Kelsay now says "Mars and Jupiter! I'll stand by Daly." —Statesman.

TEN DOLLAR TOO MUCH.—Mr. Morgan gets $225 each, for building three cisterns for this city, instead of $235 each, as stated in our item of Wednesday.

CITY ELECTION.—Occurs on Monday the first day of December, as per notice of the Recorder printed elsewhere. Let the candidates be trotted out.

BALL.—See notice elsewhere of Onester's ball on New Years Eve. It'll be a big thing, you bet.

COUNCIL MEETING.—A special meeting of the city dads occurs on Tuesday night.

A. S. Mercer, Esq., left for Portland by yesterday's train, on business connected with the issue of the Oregon Granger, the first number of which will appear on or about the 27th inst.

DUG.—The cistern on Second and Baker will be completed in a few days. Dave is making good time on his contract.

There are 700 men in the Yakima gold mines, and more arriving daily.

By means of a combination of ropes and pulleys, and bolts and nuts, etc., a cradle, a rocking-chair and a churn are kept going at the same time. Madam, gently rocking in her chair, sets the ropes in motion which are attached to the cradle and the churn, while her hands are at liberty to darn stockings or hold a novel.

Living Advertisements.

A medicine that has done more than all the prescriptions of the pharmacopoeia to protect the human system against the bodily ills superinduced by unhealthy surroundings, is certainly worthy of universal confidence. It is mainly on account of its extraordinary preventive properties that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is so exceedingly popular in localities subject to the visitation of miasmatic fevers and other diseases produced by impoisoned air. A family that has escaped sickness during a sickly season in consequence of using the Bitters as a safeguard, is a living advertisement of the virtues of the preparation. The whole neighborhood realize the fact. "I couldn't believe it," says one. "I scarcely credited the advertisements; but one must believe what one sees," says another. "It is the very thing we need in this unwholesome section of country," remarks a third. And the result is that the instinct of self defense, the first law of nature, induces three-fourths of that community to obtain a supply of the great vegetable antidote before the next sickly season sets in. In the winter, when the system requires extra vigor and elasticity to enable it to baffle the effects of damp and cold the Bitters will be found particularly serviceable. Rheumatism will not be apt to fasten upon muscles and nerves that have been braced up by this excellent invigorant and nerve; nor will the severities of the season, which have such a disastrous effect on the pulmonary organs of the feeble and delicate, be likely to exercise the same untoward influences in cases where the stomach and the external surface of the body (which always sympathizes with the digestive organs) have been toned and stimulated by a course of the restorative. The fits of indigestion and irregularities of the bowels which proceed from sudden changes of weather may always be averted by a timely use of the Bitters.
